

CTRL + V

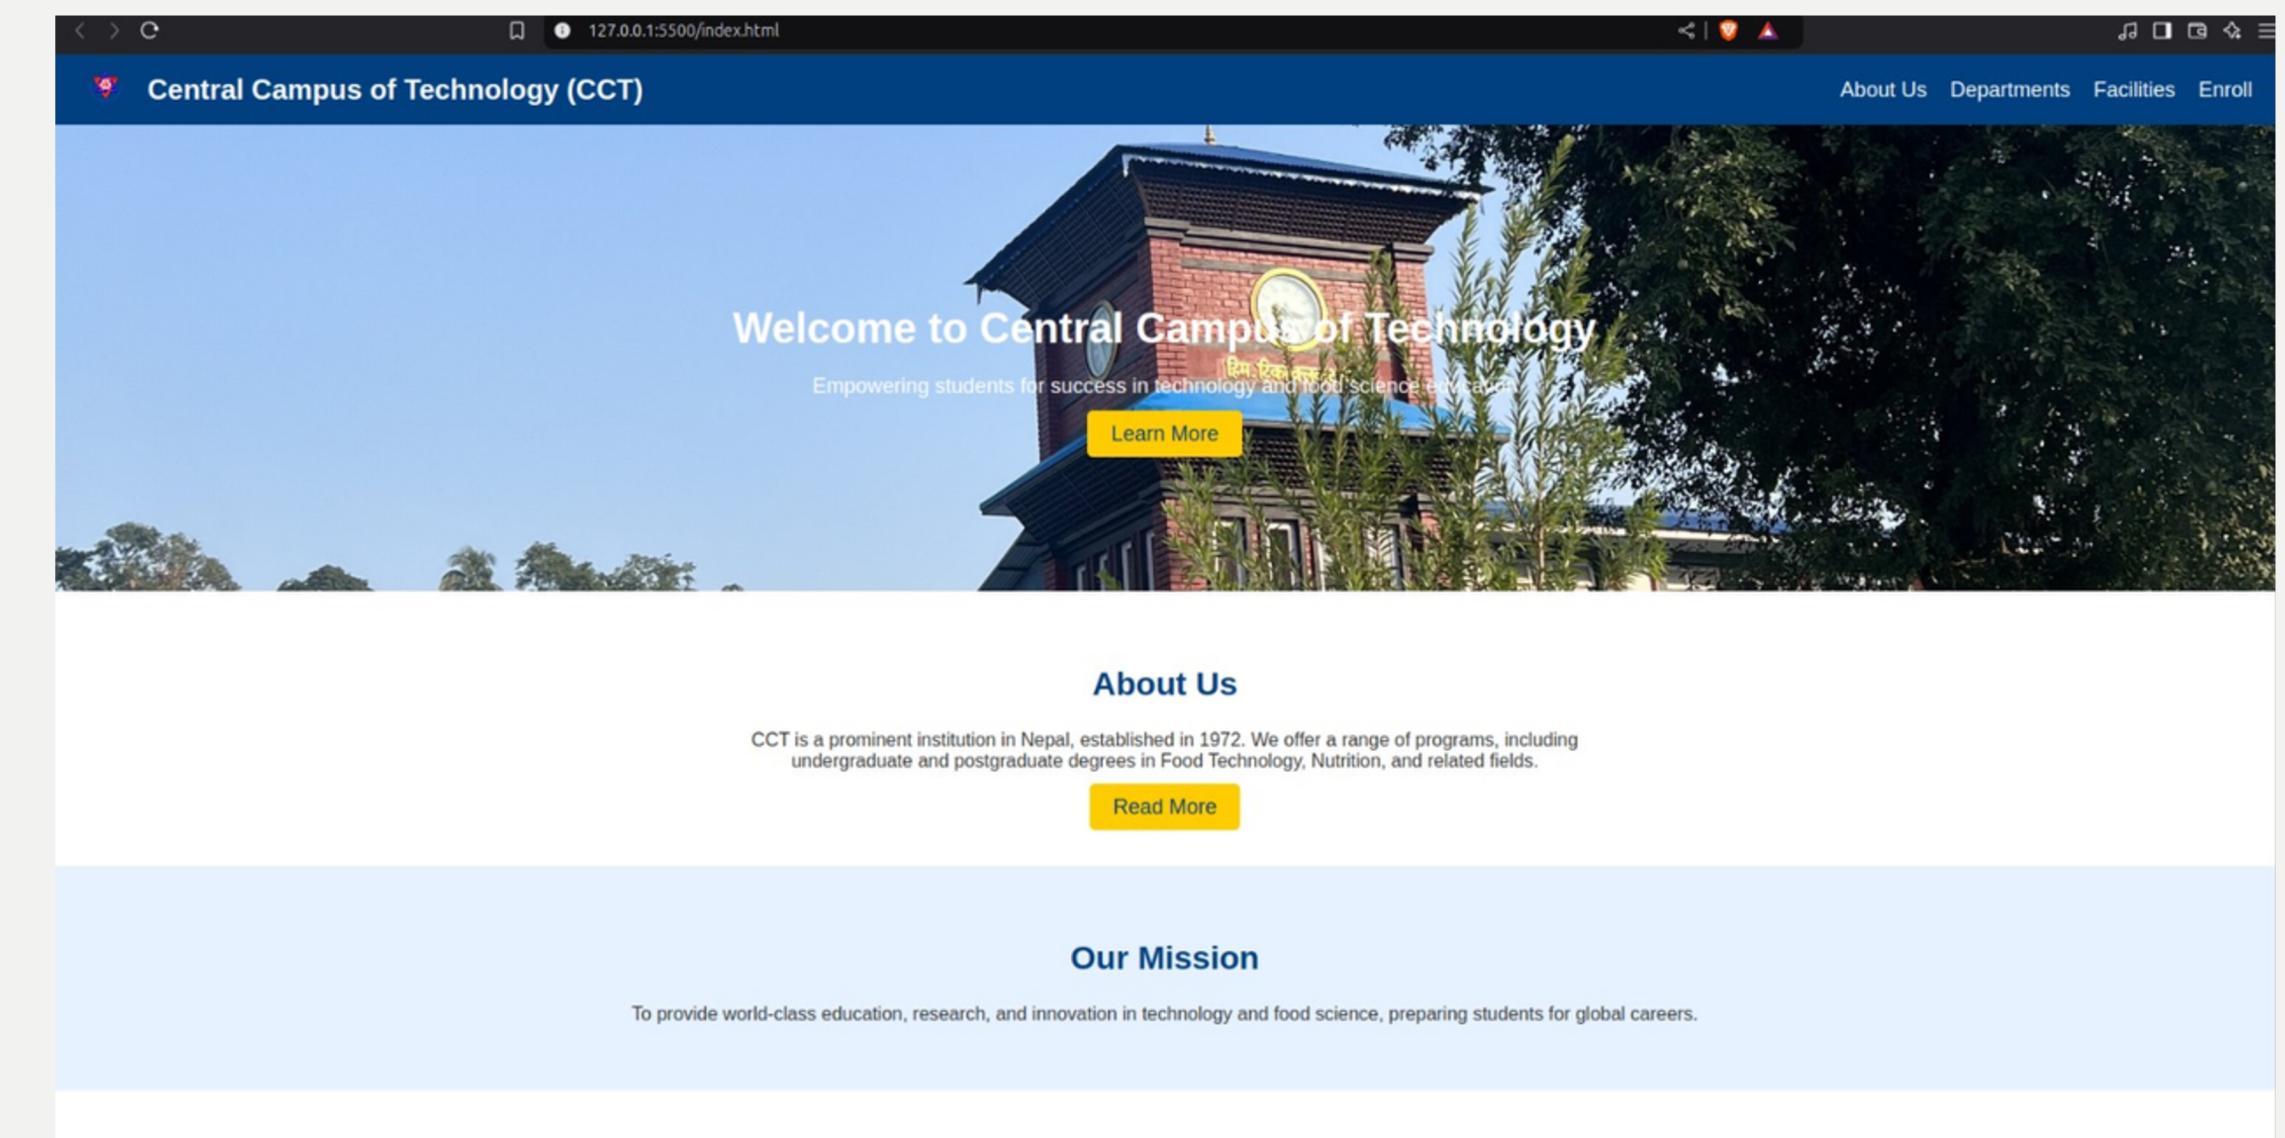

Nijal Tamang

Aryan Rajbhandari

Rabin nepali

Nishan bisa

Central campus of technology

01

About us

Central Campus of Technology (CCT) in Dharan, Nepal, is a leading institution for food technology education. Established in 1972 under Tribhuvan University, CCT offers undergraduate and postgraduate programs in Food Technology and Nutrition.

02

Department

CCT offers diverse departments including the Department of Information Technology, focusing on IT and CSIT programs; the Department of Nutrition and Dietetics, preparing students for careers in health and wellness; and the Department of Science, providing foundational courses in Physics, Chemistry, and Biology

03

Facilities

CCT offers a range of facilities to enhance student learning and experience, including a well-stocked library with extensive resources, state-of-the-art laboratories for practical training in various disciplines, and a sports complex that encourages physical fitness and recreational activities.

NEXT

About us

Central Campus of Technology (CCT)

About Us Departments Facilities Enroll

OUR MISSION

Central Campus of Technology (CCT), located in Dharan, Nepal, is a prominent institution dedicated to food technology education. Established in 1972 as a constituent campus of Tribhuvan University, CCT offers a range of undergraduate and postgraduate programs, including B.Tech in Food Technology and B.Sc. in Nutrition and Dietetics. The campus is committed to fostering research and innovation, aiming to transition into a Deemed University specializing in Food Science and Technology. With modern facilities, a resourceful faculty, and a focus on practical education, CCT strives to equip its students with the skills necessary for success in various scientific and technological fields.

NEXT

Facilities

Library

filled with a vast collection of books across various subjects. We provide a quiet and resourceful environment for students to study and research.

Hostel Facility - Central Campus of Technology

Boys' Hostel

Boys' Hostel – Central Campus of Technology The Boys' Hostel at the Central Campus of Technology provides a safe, comfortable, and well-managed living environment for students. Designed to ensure a secure and peaceful atmosphere, the hostel offers modern facilities and a structured daily routine to support academic and personal growth.

Key Features:

; Highly Secured Premises: The hostel is equipped with 24/7 security surveillance and strict entry protocols.

Girls' Hostel

Girls' Hostel – Central Campus of Technology The Girls' Hostel at the Central Campus of Technology provides a safe, comfortable, and well-disciplined living space for female students. With strict security measures and a dedicated warden, the hostel ensures a peaceful environment conducive to academic and personal development.

Key Features: NEXT

Highly Secured Premises: Equipped with 24/7 security, CCTV surveillance, and restricted entry for enhanced safety.

Faculties

OUR FACULTIES

Department of IT

BND-Bachelor in Nutrition and Dietitians

Department of science

Department of Compulsory Subjects

Department of Food Technology

Department of Food Quality Control

Department of Microbiology(BSC & MSC)

Department of Nutrition and Dietetics

DEPARTMENT OF CCT

Department of IT (BIT & CSIT)

The Department of Information Technology (IT) is responsible for managing and overseeing an organization's technology infrastructure, including computer systems, networks, software, and data management.

Bachelor of Nutrition and Dietetics

The program focuses on human nutrition and dietetics, equipping students with the skills needed to assess, diagnose, and treat dietary issues to promote health and wellness.

NEXT